

BALTIMORE

OFFICE OF PROMOTION & THE ARTS

Making Baltimore a more creative and vibrant city.

Public Art Commission

- Oversees % for Art Ordinance
- 12 active projects,
- Maintains database of over 700 public artworks in Baltimore City
- Manages pool of over 400 qualified Public Artists

Crosswalk Project

Baltimore Mural Program

- More than 200 murals
- Sites throughout the city

Warner Street Mural

Photo credit: David Muse

Love Letter to Baltimore

Photo credit: Matthew Kuborn

Steve Powers' Sign Painting Shop

Neighborhood Events

- Small grants to local community organizations for events.
- Over 6,000 people across 23 city zip codes participated!

MECU BALTIMORE'S CREDIT UNION
Helping To Support Your Community
MECU NEIGHBORHOOD EVENT GRANTS

BRUTE

BRUTE

BRUTE

BRUTE

STOP

Transformative Art Project

- Using art to create neighborhood identity and raise the positive visibility of a community
- Permanently reinventing public spaces with non-profit community groups working in partnership with professional artists
- Awards of up to $30,000

PNC Transformative Art Prize

PNC Transformative Art Prize

PNC Transformative Art Prize

Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake
& the City of Baltimore

CREATIVE
BALTIMORE
FUND

Creative Baltimore Fund/Mayor's Artists Awards

School 33 Art Center

Bright StARTs

Arts education year-round for underserved children in grades K-12 out-of-school

-2,500 students participate annually.

Bright StARTS

Partnerships with Baltimore Family League, City Schools & others

Quality of Life A Better Baltimore